A Stage 1 upgrade is the most common because it can be done by most riders at home and the result can be the best bang for your buck. Stage 1's are also recommended to be done in conjunction with any other upgrade. Next up, the Stage 2 consists of swapping out the cams and pushrods. By swapping the cams, you can set your bike up to deliver the power and torque where you need it, whether it's in the low-end, mid-range, top-end or the best combination of each.
